

COLUMBIA SPECTATOR

ARCHIVE

Columbia Daily Spectator, Volume CVIII, Number 105, 16 April 1984 — Page 11 Advertisements Column 3 [ADVERTISEMENT]

PYRAMID MOVING COMPANY NEIGHBORHOOD SERVICE CENTER

- Honest & Efficient moving by experienced professionals
- Storage space in secure, fireproof facilities
- Complete selection of boxes and shipping materials at substantial cash & carry discounts
- Postal boxes for Summer rental or longer periods
- Xeroxing — prompt, personal service
- Notary public available six days a week

1241 Amsterdam Ave. (121st)

222-6663

GAY PEOPLE AT COLUMBIA

TUESDAY, APRIL 17, 1984

a general meeting for all members

A discussion with

Art Felson,

Columbia University graduate, who is currently president of

People With AIDS

8:30 PM, Furnald Hall, Gay Lounge

CLAIROL

IS LOOKING FOR WOMEN WHO WANT TO TRY NEW TEMPORARY

HAIRCOLORING PRODUCTS

Clairol Evaluation Salon would like to give women who have never tried haircolor the opportunity to try haircolor that will add soft natural highlights to hair. All the products wash out with one shampoo.

Your hair will be in the hands of the finest experts.

The program begins May 1st and continues every Monday thereafter from 9:00-6:30 P.M. If you are interested, please call (212) 546-2711 for an appointment.

© 1984 Clairol Inc.

$$$ THINKING OF WAYS $$$
$$$ TO EARN EXTRA MONEY? $$$

REGISTRATION WORKERS AND PROCTORS NEEDED AT THE GRADUATE SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

Applications are now being accepted for the following periods:

Final Exams - April 27 - May 8

General Registration - May 14 - 15

Change of Program - May 23 - May 25

If interested, apply in person at:

OFFICE OF STUDENT AFFAIRS
211 URIS HALL
280-4191

PLEASE NOTE: Columbia employees on either bi-weekly or monthly payroll are ineligible. Columbia Business School students may not work as proctors. Non-U.S. citizens must obtain work permits.