

COLUMBIA SPECTATOR

ARCHIVE

Columbia Daily Spectator, Volume CXI, Number 56, 26 November 1986 — Correction [ARTICLE]

Correction

In yesterday's front page story about the University AIDS committee, a quote was misattributed to Laura Pinsky, an advisor to the campus Gay Health Advocacy Project. It was Senior Vice President Joseph Mullinix who said, "We want a report that states what our general policy will be: that these people [with AIDS] will be treated according to their individual problems. We won't treat AIDS as the 'bad' disease."

Spectator regrets the error.