A day without Alma Mater

‘A Day Without Art’ was recognized at Columbia yesterday when various objects of art were draped in recognition of the worldwide problem of AIDS. See story, page 25.